Financial Leadership for Executives: Mastering
Planning, Investment, and Tax Strategies
(February 23-25, 2026)

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Financial leadership is essential for executives navigating today's dynamic business environment. This programme is designed to enhance financial acumen among senior and mid-level executives, equipping them with strategic tools for financial planning, investment management, and tax optimisation. Participants will gain practical insights into wealth management, risk mitigation, and profitability strategies, ensuring business and personal financial growth.

Emphasising data-driven decision-making, advanced tax strategies, and financial forecasting, the course enables executives to reduce liabilities, optimise resources, and drive sustainable success. By the end of the programme, participants will have mastered key financial principles and strategic approaches, empowering them to make confident, well-informed decisions aligned with their organisational and personal financial goals.

OBJECTIVES
